

25th Anniversary Event

Sponsorship Opportunities & Benefits

EVENT SUMMARY

To mark its 25th anniversary, the Catholic Community Foundation of Minnesota (CCF) will gather 500 Catholic philanthropists and leaders in Minnesota to attend a dinner event in the spring of 2018. The purpose this event is not to fundraise but to celebrate the impact made possible by collective generosity, and inspire hope for the future of our Catholic community.

SUMMARY OF THE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY FOUNDATION OF MINNESOTA

- In 25 years, CCF has become the largest Catholic community foundation in the nation and the sixth largest public grantmaker in the state of Minnesota. CCF manages more than $320 million in assets and grants $14 million each year to important Catholic and nonprofit causes.
- Through partnership, financial stewardship, and grantmaking, we perpetuate the faith, continually making Minnesota's Catholic community stronger and more robust.

TARGET AUDIENCE SUMMARY

The CCF audience is comprised of primarily affluent Catholics, ages 55 to 75, who are savvy, well-informed, leaders in the Twin Cities philanthropic community. They are active in and support a wide range of secular and sacred causes, and often focus on the long-term impact of their investments and philanthropy.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: The Most Reverend Frank J. Caggiano, 5th Bishop of the Diocese of Bridgeport, CT

Bishop Caggiano is a bold leader who Forbes Magazine named "The Entrepreneurial Bishop" after catching wind of his plans for a Leadership Institute where lay leaders can share their professional expertise with the Church and its clergy. Popular among young people, Bishop Caggiano has been invited by both Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis to speak to millions at four World Youth Days. He encourages the Church to heal divisions through community and hospitality, urging Catholics to rediscover the power of the table. "We're not fully meant to be who we're meant to be," he says, "until we're all at the same table."
