Are you part of a Catholic racial justice or immigration justice ministry? Would a member of your social justice or outreach ministry may be interested in how you might support your immigrant neighbors? Or a parishioner hoping to learn ways to engage in this work with others?

Save the Date for The Catholic Racial Justice Coalition ministry gathering on November 1, 2025. Our topic is "How Catholics Can Accompany the Immigrant Community." You are invited to break bread and meet other individuals around the archdiocese for a morning of connection, sharing, and support. Watch your email for more information coming soon.

The Catholic Racial Justice Coalition of the Twin Cities is made up of the area's largest Catholic organizations working collaboratively to build just relationships, heal the wounds created by racism and discrimination, and contribute to ending racial injustice within our communities and collective Catholic organizations.
